At Il orfock last night sixty-four numbers had been issued. The places they represent will be held until 7 octock this morning. If the holders are not in line by that time their places will be filled by others. There was some complaint last night over silleged partiality on the part of the management. It was asserted that employees of the Theat were favored in the distribution of furmhers, and that choloe positions were given to them before the general public had a chance.

Samuel Barrett the Victim of a Missed Shot Explosion In the Lower Mamoth at Tintic.

A terrible accident occured yesterday in the Lower Mammoth mine, in the Tintic district. It was the old story of the missed shot, and Samuel Barrett the missed shot, and Samuel Barrett was the victim. Barrett was working on the 500 level when he struck the unexploded charge. He received the full force of the explosion on his left side, with terrible results. His left hand was blown almost entirely off and the sight of his left eye was destroyed. His right hand and arm were also badly lacerated.

The injured man was brought to this city and taken to the Hosmer-Keogh haspital, where his wounds were dressed, He was reported last night as resting easily.

mysterious absence of pretty Ah Goc, Chimatown's most charming belie. The explanation offered by one, and corroborated by a half dozen neighbors of Charlie Hoy, is probably the most satisfactory one yet given.

There are two factions in Chimatown. One is led by Charlie Hoy, the other by Chin Chin, these two being the shrewlest and at the same time the most popular individuals of the race, localing. Both are in the merchandise business, and their rivalry was, to a certain extent, but natural. But it went further, Semething less than a year ago Hoyhad the good fortune to be made example to a tradesman, for in addition to his salary, he has a standing contract to furnish his proteges on the road with provisions.
